Biographical Sketch:

Leon Brady, originally from Louisiana, is a jazz musician and music teacher in Kansas City, Kansas. He joined the US Air Force in 1949 after graduating high school. After his military service, Leon earned his Bachelor of Science from Tennessee State University in 1957. Leon moved to Kansas City, KS in 1959, when he accepted a position as band director at Dunbar Elementary and Northeast Junior High Schools. He then transferred to Sumner High School in 1966. Three years later, he opened Progressive Music Studio in the Quindaro neighborhood in KCK. And in 1976, Leon opened a music store called Brady & Sons Music Company; it closed 2000. In 2001, he started the Kansas City Youth Jazz program.

In addition to teaching and operating a small business, Leon was a member of the KC Jazz Quintet along with George Salisbury, Milt Abel, Carmel Jones, Herman Bell, and later Frank Smith and Tony Swisher. He has also performed with many other famous jazz musicians over the course of his life. At one time, he was an Elder Statesman of Kansas City Jazz and served on the Advisory Committee of the Kansas City Jazz Orchestra.

Scope and Content Note:

The Leon Brady Collection consists of a single series of awards, plaques, certificates, and proclamations from organizations, churches, and schools in City of Kansas City, KS, and the City of Kansas City, MO.
